

Ben Raaen, formerly engaged in the implement business in Binford in the early days, was here Tuesday shaking hands with old acquaintances. Mr. Raaen owns a large farm in Saskatchewan, and is prospering from all appearances. He states the crops there were damaged some owing to an early frost.