

"Dutch" Rickford, of Pekin, has been spending a few days here this week, on business matters. Owing to the absence of our regular violin player, he helped out on that instrument with the Binford orchestra when they furnished the music for the dance at Pekin last Friday evening. "Dutch" doesn't claim he can set the world on fire as a violinist but he modestly claims he can fiddle some, and the other members of the orchestra will attest this statement.

"If I owned a newspaper what I
