

ed
of
m
nd
s-
=
train.

Emil Ringlee, who is attending a dental school in Chicago, arrived home yesterday to spend the Christmas and New Year vacation. The appellation, "Doc," can soon be prefixed to his name. He will have completed his course in a few more months and then expects to take the North Dakota examination. He has not decided where he will practice, but his many friends in this community hope to see him hang up his shingle in Binford.

An exchange says a wise nut has