

Buy's More Blooded Stock.

Matt Rorvig returned last Friday from Grandin, where he had been to make a deal for some more full-blood Shorthorn cattle. Mr. Rorvig traded in one of his Belgian colt stallions for $700 for six heifer calves, which cost him $1000. Matt is going into the live stock business determined to make a success of it, and we hope his efforts will be rewarded.
