

The live stock development meeting held at the Matt Rorvig farm Tuesday was very successful in point of attendance and also information given by the speakers. Practical suggestions and good advice was given which will undoubtedly be of much benefit to farmers in this community.