

remainder of the week.

The two-weeks old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Gander Rust was taken to St. Luke's Hospital at Fargo, where he underwent an operation this week on his stomach. He was born with the opening at the lower end off the stomach closed up, so that it was necessary to enlarge this opening in order to let the food pass through into the bowels. At last report he was doing fairly well.