

The Hauge Lutheran church at Sharon was struck by lightning and burned to the ground last week. With efficient fire fighting apparatus the church could have been saved, according to the Reporter.