

McHenry Tribune: Frank Shrouf, who will be remembered as a former resident of McHenry, and who shot and killed John McLaughlin here a few years ago, has had his sentence commuted from 12 years to an indeterminate sentence of from five to 12 years. He has made a model prisoner during his term of service and numerous citizens have helped in the matter of getting his sentence reduced.