

live in your county.—Adv.

Andrew Storkson sustained the fracture of a bone in his left leg on Monday. He was riding a broncho which was harnessed and the animal became unruly, throwing Mr. Storkson and in falling his foot caught in the lines. He was dragged for some distance before the line broke. It was a lucky thing that the accident did not prove worse, as had not the line broken the result might have been fatal.

Ed W. Henson and family of Hone