

Estimable Family Leave McHenry.

Mrs. F. H. Strehlow and little son Lyle, left on Friday for Casselton where they will later be joined by Mr. Strehlow. They will then go to Windom, Minn., where they expect to spend the winter.

In the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Strehlow, McHenry loses one of her most influential families.

Mrs. Strehlow has been a valuable worker in all affairs of a public nature including Sunday school, church, club and aid work to which she has given her best and her loss from these activities cannot be estimated. She was a pleasing reader and her work along that line will be greatly missed. As a token of esteem her lady friends presented her with a diamond and pearl laviallier.

Mr. Strehlow has always stood for progressiveness and has always aided any enterprise which would help in the upbuilding and prosperity of the town. They both have a host of friends who are saddened by their loss from the community but all hope for all good things to befall them where'er they may cast their lot.—Tribune.
