Mrs. John Youngbeck has been very sick from an attack of appendicitis the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Hoff had an operation performed at Cooperstown Monday, on their son, Bjarne for the removal of adenoids and tonsils.

F. D. Cannon of Binford was in Sutton Tuesday, making arrangements for the play that will be given by the Binford band, April 30.

Ed Rhodes is having some remodeling done to the house on the farm north of town.

Geo. Allen has traded his little Ford runabout to Johnny Ryum for a piano. Both are doubtless as tickled as a boy with his first tin whistle, over their acquisitions.

The old bank building, occupied by the post office below and S. E. Swanson's above, is receiving a general overhauling on the inside. C. A. Linse and Jack Simons of Binford are doing.

Young Mr. Rearick and a Mr. Adams of Cooperstown were in Sutton Saturday soliciting advertising for the 1915 fair catalogues. An effort will be made this year to have a better fair than in former years.

A new time schedule goes into effect on the Surrey division of the Jim Hill road Sunday. No. 3 will again come this way and will stop at Sutton to let off passengers from the Twin Cities. No. 28, the fast mail, will also be routed this way. The local passenger and the freight will be run separately, and the latter will be a tri-weekly service. The agent has not been notified what the exact time of the trains here will be.
