

been doomed.

Sutton Reporter: The new opera house was all spick and span Wednesday night, when it was used for the first time. The beautiful new curtain and scenery were all in place and the room was lighted by electricity from the plant which was installed this week. The stage is large enough to accommodate the average show troupe, and we will now have an opportunity to see some first class plays in Sutton.