

Herman Terry, an electrician of Fargo, arrived here last Friday, and will be employed wiring up the houses for electric lights. Mr. Terry did the wiring for the people at Pekin, and he has been recommended as a man who understands his work thoroughly.

"Capt. Beckett" will be next at