

A large crowd attended the basket social held at the John Thune farm last Saturday night and all present had a good time. F. G. Lewis sold the baskets, bringing in a sum of $66.05, which will be used to buy books for the school near there. I. A. Kampen, the superintendent of schools, was present and gave an interesting talk.