

Privates Swenson and Tufteland of Co. F., were over from Carrington to spend Sunday at their respective homes here. When Adolph left home to enlist at St. Paul, a few weeks ago, he changed his plans and went instead to Carrington where he knew some of the boys in the company, and enlisted there.

The hunting season opened Sun-