

While playing with some pieces of money the two-year-old baby of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Tweed swallowed a nickel, the coin lodging in the child's throat. They took the child to Fargo last Saturday to a doctor to remove the coin. Three doctors had a very difficult time to perform the necessary operation, but were successful.