Scott Vanderboger, a former resident of Griggs county, was here this week, renewing acquaintances with old-timers. When he lived in this county, he owned the John Ebentier farm near Sutton. He still retains some land interests near that town. Mr. Vanderboger moved to Zambrota, Minnesota, 20 years ago, several years before Binford was on the map. This was his first visit here and naturally he was much impressed with the progress this country has made.
