

While playing around the kitchen on Monday, Ione, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Widlund, was severely burned by a pan of scalding water spilling over her. Her arms and legs are badly blistered. She was brought in to town and bandaged up by Dr. Truscott and is getting along nicely.