

OTTESON-BIXBY

New Richmond (Wisconsin) News: Midst a myriad of fragrant summer blossoms, Miss Esther Otteson and Frank Hight Bixby were married at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

The ceremony took place at the home of the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bixby on N. Green St., Rev. H. S. Mahood, pastor of the First Congregational church, officiating.

With "To a Wild Rose" as a prelude, Mrs. H. S. Mahood played Lohengrin's "Wedding March" as the couple came down the stairs unattended, the bride wearing a traveling suit of dark blue.

The rooms were prettily decorated with pink and white roses, infants breath, garden lilacs and peonies.

Immediately after the ceremony light refreshments were served to the company of twenty-three who had witnessed the tying of the knot, after which the newlyweds boarded the northbound twilight limited for Duluth. On their return from their wedding trip, they will go to housekeeping in the downstairs flat of the A. H. Lynch duplex on N. Star st., being at home to their many friends after August 1st.

The newlyweds were literally deluged with presents and are just about completely equipped to go to housekeeping when they get back to town.

The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Sophia Otteson, of Cooperstown, N. D. She is a very charming young lady and has already met a number of New Richmond people. She will be most cordially welcomed as a permanent resident of New Richmond. The groom is one of the city's younger business men. He has been teaching in North Dakota, and it was there that he met his bride. In fact, they taught together. He has entered trade here in New Richmond with a most flattering prospect before him.
