

to membership.

The church parlors was the scene of a very large gathering of ladies last Friday evening when a parcel shower was given Miss Inez Greenland, who will leave shortly for Kellogg, Idaho, to become the bride of Clifford Ehlers. A color note of pink and white was carried out in the decorations. Streamers were suspended from small parasols hung in the ceiling above each table tiny ping hearts bordered the curtains and table linen, and dainty pink shades covered the lights, making a pleasing and beautiful setting for a bridal shower. A miniature bride and groom standing under an arch of flowers adorned the center of the long table. The entertainment commenced with a program consisting of music and readings, after which Mrs. Lucy Grigsby, in a few appropriate words, presented the bride-to-be with the many lovely gifts that were brought by her many admiring friends. Miss Greenland responded with hearty thanks. A buffet lunch was served and the remainder of the time was spent in an informal manner. Out-of-town guests at the party were Mrs. Magnus Greenland and daughter, Phyllis, of Aneta, and Mrs. Edwin Bolkan of Cooperstown.