

the depot."

The Francis Ringlee home was the scene of a pretty shower party last evening, when Mrs. Francis Ringlee and Mrs. Oscar Alm entertained in honor of Miss Eva Paul, bride-to-be. Guests to the number of about forty were invited. Entering the home the guests were ushered into the living room, in the center of which was suspended from the ceiling a large white bell draped in pink and white and sprinkled with green. The same color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the dining room with streamers and sweet peas affecting the decorations. The dining table was decorated with a large kewpie representing a bride and the favors were small kewpies to which were attached cards bearing date of the wedding, Oct. 15. A four-course luncheon was served. It was a most enjoyable social event and Miss Paul was showered with many beautiful gifts.
