

A miscellaneous shower was given at the home of Mrs. Julius Thorn, last Friday evening, December 2, in honor of Miss Josephine Thingelstad, a December bride. About seventy of her lady friends were gathered to pay her homage and wish her exceeding joy. The entertaining feature of the evening was a mock wedding, in which the principles were Mrs. D. F. Rice as the blushing young bride, Miss May Brill as the dashing groom, and Mrs. W. E. West the parson tying the knot by the aid of a Sears-Robuck catalog. Mrs. H. B. Hanson gave the bride away, and Miss Margeret Ristad presided at the piano. At 11 o'clock a delicious lunch was served in the dining room which was decorated with pink streamers, with a kewpie bride as the center attraction on the table. The bride-to-be was showered with many beautiful gifts in cut glass, silverware, china, linen and handwork.

The absence of greeting cards has