

GRANHEIM-THINGELSTAD

On Wednesday, Dec. 7th, at high noon, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Thingelstad, occurred the marriage of their younger daughter, Miss Ada Josephine, to Mr. Arne Granheim. At 12 o'clock, to the soft strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Elmer Krogfoss, the bridal party took their places. The bride was attended by her niece, Miss Evelyn Alfson, while the groom's friend and army buddy, John Strandjord, of Fargo, assisted as bestman. Rev. H. O. Bach was the officiating clergyman and the impressive ring ceremony was used. Only immediate relatives and close friends of the family were present at the wedding. After the service was read, Mrs. Ruth Olstad and Miss Ida Smogard rendered the duet, "Absent."

The bride's gown was of cream satin elaborated with georgette and beads. She wore a veil and carried an arm bouquet of pink and cream bridal roses. The groom wore conventional attire.

After congratulations were offered, the bridal party and guests were invited into the dining room and sat down to a real feast of good things. The table was tastily decorated with ferns and roses, and the serving done by Mrs. Olstad and Miss Smogard.

The bride is a very popular and highly esteemed young lady, who has many friends whom she has won thru her winsome and womanly qualities. She has grown to womanhood here, attended the public school and worked in the church and Sunday School. For the past year she has been engaged in the teaching of music to a large class of youngsters.

The groom is a model young man who has for the past few months been employed by J. C. Thingelstad as a mechanic, and has earned a reputation for industry and uprightness, and is generally esteemed for his excellent character. He was in service during the world war and spent a year at Camp Lewis, Washington.

Many useful and beautiful wedding gifts were bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. Granheim, who go forth upon life's journey with the kindest wishes of their many friends.

The young couple expect to leave soon for Chicago to make their home while the groom takes up a course of study in an electrical school.
