

Word reached here last week that Edgar Grigsby of Binford, and Miss Elizabeth Rickford, of Jessie, were married at Minneapolis, on the 25th of November, 1922, and kept their marriage secret until a few days ago. The young couple are keeping house in St. Paul, where Mr. Grigsby is employed in Armour's packing plant. The Times joins with their many friends here in extending best wishes.

---