

YOUNG COUPLE MARRIED

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Grigsby, in Binford, Thursday afternoon, March 17, at 2 o'clock, when Frank Grigsby and Miss Lucy Mae Brooke were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Rev. Duden, of Cooperstown, performed the ceremony in the presence of the members of the family and close friends of the high contracting parties. Miss Margeret Ristad played the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party made its way to a place beneath a large white bell suspended from the ceiling, where the vows were spoken.

The bride wore a lovely gown of white Georgette made over a white satin foundation, beautifully embroidered. She carried a bouquet of lilies and pink bridal roses. Miss Pearl Brooke, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Miss Laura Rice, bridesmaid. Both young ladies wore white and their flowers were corsage bouquets of pink roses. The groom was supported by Stanley Colton and Gilbert Grigsby.

Pink and white streamers were used in the decorations, and lovely
