

---

vases of Easter Lillies and roses were arranged throughout the rooms.

Immediately following the ceremony, an attractively appointed dinner was served in the dining room, which was also prettily decorated in pink and white.

The principals in the above happy event are well known to the residents of Binford and vicinity. The bride is a young lady of many accomplishments and winsome ways, who has for two years been one of the efficient instructors of the county. The groom has lived here with his parents for several years and is a young man of pleasing personality and fine character.

The many friends of this worthy young couple join The Times in extending wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

---