Two of Binford's popular young people stole a march on their friends last week and went to Minneapolis to be married. The principals in the event are Olaf Knapp, son of Mrs. Clara Knapp, and Miss Susie Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shaw, whose wedding occurred on Friday, Jan. 4th in Minneapolis. The bride was grown to womanhood here and graduated from the Binford high school with the class of 1921. Since that time she has attended the university for two years. The groom is manager and agent for the Acme Elevator company, which position he has held for several years. He served overseas during the World War. The Times joins with other friends of the young couple in wishing for them happiness and prosperity in their matrimonial venture.
