

Nelson-Leonard

Sentinel-Courier: The Thompson-McDermott store in Cooperstown experiences the greatest difficulties in securing single help and keeping it. 'Twas late last summer that the store was deprived of two of its helpers via the marriage route. And Friday found a large display card in the window of the store seeking information as to the whereabouts of two of its clerks, who very suddenly disappeared, strayed or were stolen. But word was received that day from Fargo announcing the two parties safe and secure—announcing that Mr. Martin Nelson and Miss Agnes Leonard had been married at Fargo that afternoon.

This announcement was no little surprise to all in this community, yet a surprise that is calling forth much enthusiasm on the part of a great host of friends these two young people have in Cooperstown.

Mr. Nelson will soon assume the office of County Treasurer of this county, to which office he was elected at the recent general election. Nothing that could be said would express the popularity of Mr. Nelson more than this victory at the polls, a victory won by a large majority.

Miss Leonard, or rather, Mrs. Nelson, is one of Cooperstown's most popular young ladies. Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are going to find a warm welcome awaiting them upon their return here following a few days of honeymooning.
