

OLSON-LAPLANT NUPTIALS

At high noon at the home of the bride's parents near Jessie, Thursday, June 21, occurred the marriage of Miss Ethel LaPlant to Mr. Arthur T. Olson, of Van Hook. They were attended by Bruce LaPlant and Miss May Johnson.

The rooms were beautifully decorated with ferns, white carnations and pink peonies. The corner of the parlor where the bridal party took their places was decorated with two pedestals entwined with vines of pink and white sweet peas, with a background of green and white.

The wedding march was played by Mrs. Neva Anderson, a sister of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Crites, of Cooperstown, in the presence of immediate friends and relatives, after which a sumptuous wedding feast was enjoyed, with places for twenty-five guests.

The bride looked lovely in a gown of cream white beaded satin and carried a bouquet of pink roses. The bridesmaid was attired in pink, and carried pink roses.

The contracting parties are very well known to our readers, having grown up in this community, and who have a host of friends who wish them all happiness and prosperity.

The bride is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. LaPlant and the groom was a former resident of Jessie, having been employed in the State Bank.

Immediately after the prettily appointed wedding dinner the happy couple left by auto for a trip to Minnesota cities and lakes, after which they will be at home to their friends at Van Hook, where the groom is cashier of the bank.

The Times extends best wishes and hearty congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Olson.
