

MISS ALMA FORD IS BRIDE OF Wm. PEARSON

At high noon on Sunday, August 5, occurred the marriage of Miss Alma Ford to Mr. William M. Pearson. The ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few intimate friends of the bridal party in the Episcopal church at Fargo.

The bride was charmingly attired in a traveling costume of navy blue, with hat and accessories to match. She was unattended.

Miss Ford, who has been a stenographer in the office of the United States district attorney at Fargo before June 1, had held that position in William Langer's office at Bismarck for the last three months. She was born and reared to young womanhood in Bimford, and made her home here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. August Evers, for many years. She is a graduate of the Jamestown high school where she also finished a commercial course. Her many friends wish her an overabundance of joy in her matrimonial venture.

Mr. Pearson, who comes originally from Nocagdoches, Texas, has been a postal inspector of the Dakota postal division for three and a half years having used Fargo, Bismarck, Minot and Mitchell, S. D., as his headquarters.

Immediately after the ceremony, the bridal couple left for New York City, the groom having been transferred to that point, and they will make stops enroute at St. Paul, Chicago, Buffalo and Washington D. C.,
