

WEDDING BELLS

A wedding of special interest took place in St Lawrence Catholic church in Jessie, on Monday, January 24, when Miss Agnes Boisjolie of Kingsley township, became the bride of Leo P. Trudeau, of Clearfield township. Just at ten o'clock a. m. Miss Helen Ketter of Jessie, the organist, played very softly a wedding march and sang "Oh Promise Me," as the bridal party passed slowly up the altar. Rev. John Kleidon of Sargorn, one of the senators of the Catholic church in the diocese of Fargo, read the nuptial ceremony, and celebrated the wedding mass.

Under the able direction of Mr. H. Ketter of Jessie, the choir rendered pleasing songs and the church was beautifully decorated for the occasion.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Adie L. Boisjolie, as bridesmaid, while Paul L. Trudeau, brother of the groom, was best man.

The wedding party was composed of the members of the two families with a group of intimate friends of the young couple. Besides the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Trudeau, and the father of the bride, Mr. Peter Boisjolie, Frank Trudeau of McHenry, the groom's brother, and Alfred Bennett, were in attendance.

After the wedding ceremony the wedding party repaired to the farm home of the groom's parents where covers were laid in the dining room with artistic decorations, and dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Trudeau held the place of honor at the wedding table. In the evening a reception was given to the married young people at the home of the bride.

Mr. Leo P. Trudeau is regarded highly in his community and will make a most agreeable companion to his young bride. "Being of businesslike decisiveness Mr. Trudeau will surely be successful in anything he undertakes. His young bride is a charming young lady, and of most winsome personality.

The happy twain left Wednesday for New Rockford for a short visit with relatives and then continue on a westward wedding trip.

Hearty congratulations and best wishes for a long and happy life to the newly wedded young couple.—
Contributed.