

Rev. W. R. Whidden, came down from Aneta Saturday and reports things up there on the boom. We hear that about $10,000 worth of town lots have already been sold. Those that get in on the ground floor will be fortunate, if Aneta is any thing like most new towns that spring up on the prairie. Mr. Whidden is going into the grocery business up there, and The Pioneer wishes him well.