

B. A. Y.,

H. H. No. 243.,

Which translated means considerable—the Brotherhood of American Yeomen, Hope Homestead, No. 243. We have 'em—24 strong.

On Thursday night last, in the Masonic hall, the above lodge was organized with twenty-four charter members.

The organization is an insurance order of very much the same principle as the Workmen, Woodmen, Red Men, and like institutions, and meets the first Mondays in each month, in the G. A. R. hall.

The officers elected are:

C. S. Shippy, Foreman;

A. M. McLaughlin, Master of Ceremonies;

W. E. Boise, Correspondent;

J. J. Wamberg, Master of Accounts;

W. J. Milligan, Physician;

Adam Major, Overseer;

R. E. Morehouse, Guard;

J. W. Laramore, Watchman;

Geo. Meader, Sentry.

The charter members, who have received the work, are:

J. L. Stephenson, R. G. Montgomery,

R. E. Morehouse, T. A. Lyon,

C. S. Shippy, E. D. Wallace,

Adam Major, W. E. Boise,

J. J. Wamberg, A. M. McLaughlin,

L. A. Jacobson, J. W. Laramore,

F. N. Gilmore, G. A. Warner,

W. J. Milligan, Geo. Meader,

L. W. Fuller, L. O. Elliott, Sr.,

A. E. Warner, L. O. Elliott, Jr.,

O. G. Major, E. M. Fuller.

The Pioneer hopes that the new lodge will prosper and grow fat.
