

The following from Coopestown to the Forum looks bad for the Courier:

Superintendent of Schools Sinclair, Judge C. H. Johnson, Albert Larson and others have ordered a complete newspaper outfit and expect to start a new paper here in the interest of free silver and things. The projectors meet Tuesday to decide on name and date of first issue. Peter J. Gill, who run a paper for Weaver in Iowa is to be in charge.