

One of our citizens was telling us this morning that he had lost his cow but latter on found her in the high weeds along the sidewalks. The street commissioner should see that those weeds are cut down, before some one gets lost on their way to church or Sabbath school.