

While S. C. Fuller was returning home from town Monday night his team became frightened and ran away, turned the buggy over, throwing Mr. Fuller upon his right shoulder, crushing it badly. Dr. Philip was called and Sid is resting as easy as can be expected.