

—Hud Fulmer happened to quite an accident the first of the week while coming in from the south-west, after dark. It seems there had been a new barbed wire fence put up across the road and it being so dark Hud did not see the fence and in consequence the horse ran into the wire which cut him in terrible shape.