

and Buz Warner and Frankie Gilmore. The purse was 50 cents—first and second money—35 to winners and 15 to second. Warner and Gilmore won first.

BICYCLE RACE.

E. H. Stevens and Chas. Warner arranged to run from the railroad track down Steele avenue to Third street for $2.50, three heats. Warner won first, Stevens second and Warner third.

PIE EATING MATCH.

Here is where heart failure was feared by many, after laughing so hard. An apple pie was cut in four pieces and Monkey Rice, Steen Nelson, Buz Warner and Willie Taylor first having their hands tied behind them, dived into the pie like so many little pigs. Sneen Nelson forgot to whistle and Monkey Rice beat him out. The purse was 50 cents—35 to winner and 5 cents each to the other three.

CURRENT EATING MATCH.

Then for more of the same kind of fun, currants were placed in a pie pan and five hungry little fellows had their hands tied behind them and pushed their faces into the fruit. The purse was 50 cents—30 to the winner and 10 cents each to the others. The boys were: Billy Taylor, Monkey Rice, Howard Hazlett, Buz Warner and Steen Nelson. Taylor won first money.

In the evening all the fire works in town were brought out and a very pretty display witnessed at homes. Those remaining at home report a much more enjoyable time than those abroad, owing of course to the the rain and long drive.

Next year no doubt, Hope will commence early and arrange one of her old time celebrations, and the entire community will be pleased.
