

"LIVELY HOPE."

"A Brief Resume of the Lives of Business Represented in Our Busy Little City."

Here are a few that the other fellow forgot to tell you about for some reason. An oversight of course:

A. T. Ward & Co., dealers in live stock.

B. C. Shaw, life and accident insurance, and collections.

F. D. Woodworth, real estate.

Dr. E. T. Harper, veterinary dentist.

The U. S. Postoffice, Mrs. M. A. Milligan postmaster.

Silas Ingison, milk route.

Mrs. Lizzie Chapman's city laundry.

Mrs. A. W. Graham, elocutionist.

Miss Eva Baldwin, instructor in music

Samuel McPherson, agent Great Northern Railway Co.,

Great Northern Ex. Co.,

W. U. Tel. Co.

Miss Nettie VanDusen's dressmaking parlors.

Dr. Hadwen, veterinarian.

The Hope Ice Rink, Jas. Loney, proprietor.

Town Board.

Town Hall and Opera House.

Business Men's association.

M. E. church.

Congregational church.

Ladies' Aid Society, M. E. church.

Ladies' Aid Society Congregational church.

G. A. R. Post.

Women's Relief Corps.

Sons of Veterans.

Public graded school.

Hope school board.

A. F. & A. M. lodge.

I. O. O. F. "

O. O. H. "

M. W. A. "

A. O. U. W. "

I. O. G. T. "

Eastern Star "

Rebekah "

Royal Neighbor "

W. C. T. U.

Y. P. S. C. E.

The Hope Pioneer, established in 1882.

Vol. XVI, No. 42—almost 17 years old.