

HOPE IN 1882.

The first pay car over the railway came in Sunday—Aug. 4.

Mrs. D. P. Baldwin has arrived and likes her new home in Hope very much.

Chas. S. Diesterweg, of LaSalle, Ills., who has been the guest of Charley and Frank Ward, returned home yesterday.

Our mail comes via Tower City—what we want now is a daily mail.

T. J. Cooper, the bonanza farmer of Cooperstown, has recently bought 28 Deering binders of Luce & Merriell.

The fall term of school will commence Aug. 4, and continue ten weeks—with Miss Jessie Berch in charge.

Thirty cars of freight were received at this station on Friday of last week.

E. H. Steele has placed a 3,300 pound Detroit safe in the Hope House, to keep the guests valuables—safe.

Chas. H. Barlow is the new station agent and appears to be a bright young man.

Wheat and oats look elegant—five and six feet high.

Regular train service commenced on the Hope branch Aug. 1. The train arrives at 1 p. m. and departs at 3:30 p. m.

Charley and Frank Ward were out hunting several days last week, return Saturday afternoon with three wild geese and a dozen ducks. One goose weighed over 13 pounds. Young ducks are as plentiful as mosquitoes.

Work has commented on the Cooperstown railroad. The officers are: R. C. Cooper, president; N. L. Lendan, vice-president; C. G. Crane, secretary; M. Burrell, treasurer; T. B. Edwards, chief engineer.

R. F. Pickert, a gentlemen of wealth (supposed) and prominence in New York City, who has been visiting summer resorts in Minnesota, accompanied by his wife and daughter, came to Hope on the excursion last week and remained until Saturday. They are delighted with Hope and may locate.

Byron Andrews, of Rochester, N. Y., has located in Hope. He is a rustler too—in real estate.

Dr. J. H. Steele, E. H. Steele and Col. R. F. Pickert, killed a large antelope six miles north of town, last Saturday. It weighed 107 pounds, Dr. Steele shot him.

Hope has a daily train service now—on time too.

A daily stage to Devils Lake is another improvement.

Edward Spear's new flour and feed store is open for business.

F. M. Washburn is building a new and handsome residence on Ingalls ave.

H. L. Smith has sold his lumber yard to Beidler & Robinson, and is preparing to open a wood and coal yard.

Alf Davidson and E. C. Perry, of Ellsbury, got into a shooting scrape, in which Perry was worsted. E. J. McMahon was called down for legal advice.