

A large prairie fire was raging west of here last week and did considerable damage. The barn at the Cole school house was burned and a bridge caught fire, but some of the Behidester folks discovered it in due season.

---