

Dan Borden: Mr. Purche, who lives on the old Morrison farm in Broadlawn, lost his house, furniture, clothing, in fact all his earthly belongings, by fire; on Wednesday of last week, while he and the family were away from home. He is a poor man with a large family and is now practically destitute. I appeal to every man, who possibly can, to leave 50 cents or more, at the Steele County Bank, for his relief.