

girls in the morning.

There is a danger of Willow Lake passing into oblivion. The good citizens of that precinct organized the township under the much respected name of Baldwin, by a majority to two to one and duly elected the necessary officers to manage the business of the aforesaid township.