ANDERSON-PETERSON

Mr. Asher Anderson and Miss Clara Peterson were united in marriage, Jan. 6, 1908, at the home of the bride's parents at Curtis, Wis. The wedding was a quiet affair, only a few of the relatives being present. The young people made a short wedding tour to Lake Mills and other points in Iowa, returning to Hannaford last Wednesday.

The bride is a daughter of a prosperous farmer of Curtis, and is quite well known in Griggs county, having taught school near Walum for a number of years.

The groom, who lived at Lake Mills, Iowa, until coming to Dakota, is one of our prosperous young business men, having been in business here for the past three years, and he is at present vice-president of the Hannaford Mercantile Co.

The young people will make Hannaford their home. The Enterprise joins their many friends in wishing them a long life of happiness and prosperity.

NUPTIALS.

The long hoped for has happened. It took place at Fargo last Sunday. The official bulletin reads as follows: Married, at Fargo, Sept. 27, Mabel H. Walum to Oscar C. Anson, both of Walum, N. D.

This announcement did not come as the lightning from a clear sky, since it had been whispered for some time that the two had matrimonial aspirations. The time and the place only were the unknown factors.

Both of the young people are well known in this community. The bride is the daughter of Martin Walum, an early settler and prosperous farmer whose name has been appropriated by the city that is growing up just south of his homestead. The young lady is well spoken of by all who know her.

The groom hails from some place east of the Red River of the North, but he has been in this county for some years. Until a month ago he was with Claus Jackson as a clerk. Now he has charge of Gunderson Bros. and Broten's store at Walum. If there are any flaws to this young man's character, they have not appeared to date. From all accounts he is as good as any man.

The Enterprise hopes that the future may bring to Mr. and Mrs. Anson as much happiness as possible.

ANUNDSON-NORDERHAUG

On Wednesday, Nov. 27, Miss Helga Norderhaug and H. Anundson were quietly married in Cooperstown by Judge Carleton.

Miss Norderhaug is a sister of Mrs. Lewis Brekke and of Mrs. Julius Brekke, and has made her home in this village for the past two years. Her parents reside in Pierce county, Wis., her father being a wealthy farmer of that section.

Mr. Anundson is one of the old residents of Hannaford and is well and favorably known. He has been in the fuel business in this village for years, and is now connected with the Crane-Johnson Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Anundson will have the best wishes of the entire community and all will join the Enterprise in wishing them a long life of prosperity and happiness.

H. H. Bateman, accompanied by his young bride, came home last Friday. Many friends of the popular druggist were waiting on the station platform to give the happy couple a rousing homecoming. On the way to the hotel the omnibus halted before Mr. Bateman's drugstore, which was daintily decorated for the occasion. A triumphal arch of ancient shoes graced the entrance to the pharmacy; on the plate glass front of the building were inscribed appropriate legends mingled with quotations from telegrams announcing the progress of the homeward journey. Within were artistically arranged groups of baby dolls, chafing dishes, infants on a small scale, broomsticks, cupids, etc. Mr. and Mrs. Bateman were very much pleased with the reception given them by their friends.

BERGREN-HAUGEN.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated last Saturday at the home of John J. Haugen. Miss Anna Haugen was married to Chas. G. Bergren of Lake Park, Minn.

The ceremony took place at 10 o'clock in the Union church. Rev. Henrik Voldal of Cooperstown pronounced the words which made these young people husband and wife.

The bridesmaids were Miss Mary Haugen, sister of the bride, and Miss Olga Bergren, a sister of the groom. Miss Josie Bergren was the maid of honor. The best men were Julius and Ivar Haugen. Miss Alma Bergren presided at the organ and played the wedding march. The bride wore a beautiful turquoise colored gown; the groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony the happy couple, accompanied by a large number of friends, was taken to the home of the bride's parents where an excellent wedding dinner was served. The afternoon and evening was spent in feasting and merrymaking which wound up late at night by a tripping of the light fantastic.

A number of useful and expensive presents were presented to the happy couple; presents to the value of two hundred dollars.

The bride is a young lady well and favorably known in this community. She has a large number of friends who wish her abundant joy in her new position.

The groom is comparatively a stranger at this place. He came here early in the summer to work at his trade which is that of a machinery mechanic. He has already worked up a reputation as an excellent mechanic and with his sober and industrious habits we predict that he will be heard from later.

Mr. and Mrs. Bergren will take a trip to Lake Park to visit the groom's folks after which they will make their home at Hannaford.

The Enterprise wish these young people endless happiness.
