

LYLE-McMILLAN.

On Monday afternoon, May 13, 1907, at the residence of Rev. O. D. Purinton at Cooperstown, Peter S. Lyle and Jean McMillan were united in marriage.

The groom has been a resident of this county for about five years and during the coming year will conduct the Wm. Stewart farm about eight miles west of Hannaford. The bride has recently arrived from the Bronx, New York City, where she is very favorably known.

The ENTERPRISE joins the many friends of this newly married couple in wishing them a bright and prosperous future.
