

SAVRE-BRUNS.

A very pretty wedding occurred last Wednesday, June 3, at high noon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bruns of Bryan township, when their daughter Malinda became the happy bride of Mr. Edward Savre. The nuptial ceremony was performed by Rev. F. H. Reininga in the presence of a number of the most intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties.

Alma Savre and Alma Bruns were the bridesmaids and Andrew Anderson and Clarence Savre acted as groomsmen. Among the guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Otto Bruns, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boeckman, Martha, Alma and Walter Bruns, Mrs. W. A. Watson and daughter Marion, Alma, Sadie and Clarence Savre, Mrs. A. Anderson, Andrew Anderson, O. M. Brunsvold and Mr. and Mrs. A. S. B. Anderson.

The bride is a popular young lady who has lived in this state about four years. Her home used to be at West Gate, Iowa, from where she moved with her parents to Hopkins in 1904. For the past year her parents have resided on the F. C. Oltrogge farm seven miles southwest of Binford at which place the marriage ceremony was performed.

The groom is a well and favorably known citizen of this village. His home used to be at Kensett, Iowa, and from there he moved to Valley City. When he first came to Hannaford he worked for a while in E. H. Groven's store and later entered the employ of the Hannaford Mercantile Company. This spring Mr. Savre and Asher Anderson formed a partnership and are conducting a prosperous business as dealers in farm machinery.

The newly married couple left last Thursday on a wedding tour to Minneapolis and other points in the East. On their return they will take up their residence in Hannaford and will be at home to their numerous friends after June 20th.

Both the young people have a large number of friends in this state as well as in Iowa who will join the Enterprise in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.
