
ALM-RASMUSSEN

A long-heralded event was finally consummated last Friday when Mr. Louis Alm and Kathinka Rasmusson were united in marriage.

Both the contracting parties are well known in this vicinity, the bride having worked as dressmaker here in town and for families in the surrounding country. Mr. Alm has for many years been one of the proprietors of the Hannaford Hotel, and will continue to guide the destinies of that popular hostelry, and will now be in a position to make the hotel more home-like when he has an efficient help-meet to superintend the culinary department.

Mr. and Mrs. Alm arrived in town by team Saturday evening, thus avoiding the demonstrative reception which would have been theirs had they arrived on the train.

The Enterprise joins the hosts of friends of this newly married couple in extending congratulations and the best of wishes for unbounded happiness and prosperity.
