

Alm-Stromme.

On Saturday afternoon, January 28, at 5 o'clock, a pretty home wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Anna K. Stromme, when Sarah Caroline Stromme of Hannaford was united in marriage to Louis M. Alm of Una, Sask., Canada in the presence of a few near relatives, Rev. Thoreson tying the nuptial knot.

Both parties are well and favorably known in this community, the bride having grown up in our midst and she is a young lady of sterling qualities who will be greatly missed both in her church work and in her home.

The groom is an enterprising young man. He has resided in the vicinity of Hannaford until the last two years which he has spent in Canada, where he has built up a home on his claim where he and his bride will go to live after a short while.

The well wishes of the community follow these young people to their future home.
