

A Pretty Home Wedding.

MARRIED—At the home of the bride's parents, on Wednesday, June 1, 1910, Ella O. Jackson and George C. Epler.

Signs innumerable—the infallible signs placed by Cupid upon his victims—had pointed to the above happy event for some time, but so secretive were the principals to the contract that many of their most intimate friends were taken by surprise when they were informed that the nuptial knot was securely tied.

The wedding occurred at 12 o'clock at noon, Rev. Oscar D. Purinton of Cooperstown, performing the ceremony in the presence of the relatives and a few of the friends of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left on a wedding trip to the home of the groom's parents at Austin, Minn. They avoided a shower of rice by unexpectedly leaving by automobile for Valley City from that point continuing their journey by rail.

The bride is a highly esteemed young lady of this village, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claus Jackson, one of the most respected families in Hannaford, and she has lived and and grown to womanhood from the cradle in this county—esteemed and respected by a legion of friends and admirers.

For the past four years the groom has been associated with a number of the business firms in this city. He is still one of the proprietors of The Enterprise, but the last two years has devoted his time and attention exclusively to the Anderson-Sinclair Co., being one of the stockholders in that firm. He is a hustling business man and has a bright future before him.

They both have a warm spot in the hearts of those who have the pleasure of their acquaintance, and every one will join in wishing them all kinds of joy and prosperity in their married life.
