

McFAUL-ANDERSON

Married by Rev. C. B. Ludwig at 3 o'clock p. m. March 24, 1909, at the home of the bride's brother, Chas. J. Anderson, Miss Ida Elizabeth Anderson of Wimbledon and William McFaul of Hannaford, N. D.

The above event was a brilliant affair, at least seventy persons witnessed it. The parlor in which the ceremony took place was nicely decorated. In one corner of the room an arch was erected from the center of which was suspended a bell. The entire arch was covered with flowers.

Promptly at 3 o'clock the ceremony began. The playing of a wedding march by Miss Gertrude Darkenwold, announced to the assembled guests the approach of the wedding party. The bridesmaids and groomsmen entered the room as follows: Esther Anderson, Wimbledon; James McFaul, Hannaford; Mary McFaul, Hannaford; Clyde Golden, McHenry; Anna Calverude, Wimbledon; Oliver Simenson, Wimbledon; then came the beautiful flower girls, Bertha Kjlson, of Hannaford, she was not quite three years old. The bride was presented by her brother, Charles Anderson and the groom by Peter Stewart.

The bride wore a white silk dress and a bridal veil and was beautifully adorned with a wreath of orange blossoms, carrying in her hand a bouquet of fragrant carnations.

The groom was dressed in the conventional black. The bridesmaids were dressed in white satin silk and the groomsmen wore the customary black suits.

The banquet which followed the ceremony was a sumptuous affair and did credit to all who assisted—it was ample, well prepared and served in the best of style. The bride's cake was very prominent and attractive. It was ornamentally iced by Peter Stewart, the words, "Ida," on one side and "William" on the other, being iced on in dark colors.

The evening was spent in playing games and tripping the light fantastic until after midnight when the guests departed for their homes wishing Mr. and Mrs. McFaul a long, happy and prosperous married life.

—Wimbledon News.